*Qualifying photos for the “Only In Crescent City” award can be anything that happens here: photos of activities or events; structures, from monuments to sand castles, built by people or mother nature; photos of the people or animals who live here and love it. Get out of your car and start walking in or around town with your camera. Just imagine.

Then, while you are at it, imagine what it would feel like to see your photos hanging on a beautiful redwood wall in one of the most unique and well located buildings in this area .... in its first ever Photo show.
